

Bat Books for Teachers

(Tucson Pima Public Library has a large collection of books about bats. These are a few of them.)

America's Neighborhood Bats by Merlin D. Tuttle (adults, children)

Bat by Caroline Arnold (grades 4-6)

Bats by Margaret Dornfeld (grades 1-3)

Bats by M. Brock Fenton (adults and children)

Bats by Gail Gibbons (grades 1-3)

Bats by Kevin Holmes (grades 1-3)

Bats by Tony Hutson (children and adults)

Bats by Kerri O'Donnell (grades 1-3)

Bats by Lynn M. Stone (grades 1-3)

Bats: A Portrait of the Animal World by Andrew Cleave (adults, children)

Bats in Question: the Smithsonian Answer Book by Don E. Wilson (adults, children)

How Bats See in the Dark by Penny Malcolm (grades 3-5)

Outside and Inside Bats by Sandra Markie (grades 1-3)

Stokes Beginner's Guide to Bats by Kim Williams (adults and children)

The Bat: Wings in the Night Sky by M. Brock Fenton (adults and children)

What Is A Bat? by Bobbie Kalman (grades 1-3)

Videorecordings

Kids Discover Bats by Bat Conservation International (22 minutes with live action footage with animation)

Bats by KUAT in Cooperation with the Arizona Sonora Desert Museum and the Nature Conservancy Arizona Chapter

© Sabino Canyon Volunteer Naturalists, March 2010